

Partner program – partner contract

1. Description

The Contao partner program is a platform for web agencies that offer Contao services and want to present themselves on the project website. The partner program is run by Feyer Media GmbH & Co. KG and is available only to professional full-time web workers. Make sure to attach an appropriate document that states that you are a trade professional (e.g. your business registration).

This contract includes the current service description available on <https://contao.org>.

2. Costs

There is a non-refundable annual membership fee according to the service description, which has to be paid one year in advance. If a partner defaults or does not pay at all, the contract ends automatically and Feyer Media is entitled to disable the partner's accounts and terminate their services immediately.

3. Duration of contract

The duration of the contract is 12 month and either party is entitled to cancel at any time. Payed fees are not refundable.

4. Reservation

Feyer Media explicitly reserves the right to reject applications. There is no claim whatsoever to become a partner. Every application will be reviewed by Feyer Media and can be turned down without giving reasons. The contract is only concluded after acceptance by Feyer Media.

5. Signature

With your signature you acknowledge all parts of this contract and the description of the partner program on <https://contao.org>. In addition, you confirm that you are contractually capable and authorized to conclude this contract.
